aktaPD, as a Life Science industry partner in new chemical entities (NCE), biosimilars, biologics, diagnostics, and devices, provides its clients with experts in pre-clinical and clinical development, regulatory affairs, leadership, manufacturing, marketing, operations, technology, and knowledge transfer.

“Drug development is complicated and has many facets; we have gained our experience working for large and small pharmaceutical companies, so we have been where many of these drug development companies are” said Founder and President of aktaPD Lou Vaickus, MD. “That is why our solutions will increase revenue, enhance quality, assist with decision-making, shorten timelines, increase productivity, and decrease costs – all of which will allow our clients to expedite their idea-to-market pathway”.

When we asked the company’s co-owner Mark Versavel, MD, Ph.D, MBA, why he believes in aktaPD, Mark stated, "aktaPD's unique model of collaboration between accomplished drug development leaders is visionary, and our approach promises a more efficient development of drug treatments that we need for our society and globally. Our positioning as industry leaders will help our clients succeed."

The embodiment of aktaPD includes expertise, teamwork, meticulousness, fidelity, and getting the task done. The aktaPD model has taken years of strategic planning and countless hours in the design and implementation process. This investment ensures that aktaPD’s operational infrastructure will continue to support client volume and increasingly stringent client demands. Both aktaPD’s launch video and website showcasing its capabilities will arrive this month.
